

Assistant Professor in Social and Environmental Education (Geography)

GENERAL JOB DESCRIPTION Duties and Terms & Conditions of Employment

1. PREAMBLE

Mary Immaculate College is an autonomous, university-level, Catholic College of Education and the Liberal Arts. Founded in 1898, and linked academically with the University of Limerick, MIC is the oldest higher education institution in Limerick. Significant expansion in recent decades has seen the College's offerings expand across two modern campuses, one based in Limerick City and one in Thurles, Co. Tipperary. The student community consists of more than 5,000 learners, participating in fifteen undergraduate degree programmes and several postgraduate programmes extending to PhD/Doctoral level. Academic staff engage in a wide range of academic research areas, and research underpins all teaching and learning at MIC.

MIC seeks to prepare its students for professional excellence and to nurture their capacity to lead flourishing lives.

2. CANDIDATE PROFILE AND SCOPE OF THE POSITION

Mary Immaculate College wishes to appoint an Assistant Professor Social and Environmental Education (Geography) on a full-time, permanent basis.

The Department of Learning, Society, and Religious Education (LSRE) is seeking an innovative and involved faculty member to teach on Education programmes within the Faculty of Education. The person appointed will have duties in the area of Social and Environmental Education (Geography). They will also have general duties in the area of education, e.g., supervision of school placement, undergraduate and postgraduate research supervision, the development of e-portfolios etc.

Commitment to high-quality teaching and learning in a student-centered environment is essential. The person appointed must exhibit evidence of strong commitment to excellence in teaching, research and continued scholarly activity

Essential Qualifications & Skills (i.e. those, without which, a candidate would not be able to do the job):

In order to be considered for this post, applicants will have:

- a) A post-graduate qualification at doctoral level in Education or Geography or in a cognate discipline;
- b) A primary or post-primary teaching qualification recognised by, or eligible for recognition by, the Teaching Council;
- c) A minimum of three years' relevant experience, at least two year of which are in teaching at primary, post-primary or third level;
- d) Evidence of capacity to conduct, complete and publish research and a record of scholarly work demonstrating potential to become a significant contributor in their field;
- e) Specialist expertise and research in Social and Environmental Education (Geography) and related areas such as Outdoor Learning, Education for Sustainability and Global Citizenship and GIS (Geographical Information Systems).
- f) Knowledge of contemporary developments in the field of Education and Social and Environmental Education, including recent curricular and policy developments relevant to the area in Ireland;
- g) Satisfactory experience in on-line education, blended, distance and flexible learning routes;
- h) Excellent interpersonal, organisational, and time management skills.

Candidates must clearly indicate in their applications how they meet each of the criteria specified in the application form. Candidates will be shortlisted on the basis of the information provided.

Cuirfear fáilte roimh iarratais ó dhaoine a bhfuil dearcadh dearfach acu i leith na Gaeilge.
Applications are welcome from people who have a positive outlook to Irish.

3. JOB DESCRIPTION

Reporting Relationship

The appointee is required to carry out the duties attached to the post, under the general direction of the Head of Department of LSRE to whom they report, and to whom they are responsible for the performance of these duties in the first instance. The appointee will report through the Head of Department to the Dean of Education and to the College President and/or such other College Officers as the President may designate from time to time. They will liaise with the Heads of Departments and those in leadership/management positions within the Faculty of Education and with other College personnel and relevant College bodies in carrying out the duties attaching to the post. In the case of there being a crossover in terms of the duties and responsibilities of other post holders within the College, the College President will adjudicate on same.

The reporting relationship may be subject to review from time-to-time, in line with service needs and developments in the College.

Duties and Responsibilities

The duties, at undergraduate and postgraduate levels, include the following:

- Teaching and assessing students at undergraduate and postgraduate levels. This may include lecturing, tutoring, leading practical learning activities, supervising school placement, research project/dissertation supervision, supervising and grading assessments
- Programme/module design;
- Development of innovative teaching, learning and assessment strategies;
- Commitment to pursuing a research agenda and publishing research;
- Supervision of placement, undergraduate and postgraduate research;

- Working in a multidisciplinary environment and leading in the review and support of ethical clearance for undergraduate and postgraduate research;
- Academic administration including attendance and participation in meetings of the Department of Learning, Society, and Religious Education, Faculty of Education, and other groupings;
- Attendance and participation in all meetings of Examination Boards;
- Continued delivery/development of Social and Environmental Educational partnerships / outreach / engagement activities
- Consultation / guidance with students and the broader learning community.
- Lecturing in Pedagogy of Geography
- Coordination of Green Campus Award for MIC
- School Placement Supervision
- Drafting and Correction of Examinations/Assessments
- Leading and participating in relevant research
- Applying for research funding
- Supervision of undergraduate and postgraduate research
- Sit on the Ethics Committee for the undergraduate and postgraduate programmes linked to the department.
- Partake in faculty and department meetings
- Support Grad Dip/Masters programmes in Education for Sustainability and related areas
- Linking with International Office in relation to specific modules on international programmes, e.g. Culture and Diversity
- Developing teaching and learning resources and strategies in collaboration with the curriculum development unit
- Other duties as allocated by Dean of Education and Head of Department of Learning Society and Religious Education.

The list of duties and responsibilities as detailed is not exhaustive. The performance of the entire range of duties is not necessarily confined to any one individual, as the work requires that staff function in a flexible manner, and work together as a team. The College retains the right to assign new duties and/or to re-assign staff to other areas of the College, in response to service needs.

4. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

General

All persons employed will sign an appropriate contract, which will contain terms and conditions of the employment. A job description is given to all applicants for employment and this will form part of the contract documentation.

Place of Work

The appointee's primary place of work will be MIC, Limerick. The College reserves the right to require the appointee to work from any other location. It is a requirement of the College that the appointee must reside within a reasonable distance of their place of work.

Exclusivity of Service and Outside

The person appointed will be required to devote their full-time attention and abilities to their duties during their working hours in the College and to act in the best interest of the College at all times. Therefore, for as long as the successful applicant is working in the College, they may not, without the prior written consent of the College, be actively engaged or concerned in any way, either directly or indirectly, in any other business or undertaking where this is or is likely to be in conflict with the College's interests or the performance of the duties that the person has been employed for.

Apart from the occasional giving of lectures elsewhere, the writing of books and occasional literary materials, the appointee will not, during their tenure of office, undertake paid outside work unless they have received the permission of Vice President Academic Affairs (VPAA) to undertake such work on the terms and conditions as agreed for the particular undertaking in question. In every case, it is the duty of the appointee to seek in writing the prior permission of the VPAA. It is also the duty, in every case, of the appointee to inform the person or body for whom the work is being undertaken, that the work is being conducted in a private capacity and that the College cannot in any circumstances be responsible for such work.

Probationary Period

The appointment is subject to satisfactory completion of the standard 6-month probationary period. The probationary period may be extended at the discretion of the College but will not in any case exceed 11 months. Absences during the period of probation will extend the probationary period. Performance and conduct during the probationary period will be monitored through a process of assessment meetings. Termination of employment during the probationary period, for any reason or no reason, will be at the discretion of the College. The disciplinary procedure will not apply to a dismissal during probation where the probationary employee has been employed by MIC for less than 12 months.

Hours of Attendance

The normal working week for a full-time employee is 39 hours per week or 7.8 hours per day, Monday to Friday. The appointee is expected to be habitually present and available to staff and students alike during normal College hours, Monday to Friday. The appointee may be required to work occasional evenings and weekends.

Academic staff members are required to supply students with an MIC e-mail address at which they can be contacted. They must also provide the College Authorities with a telephone number at which he/she may be contacted during non-semester times. However, under no circumstances will contact telephone numbers be given to students by College Authorities.

Salary

The Salary scale for this position has been approved by the Department of Education, the Department of Further and Higher Education, Research, Innovation and Science and the Higher Education Authority in line with Government Policy on Public Sector remuneration. The appointment will be made on the salary scale at a point in line with current Government Pay Policy. In keeping with all other branches of the Civil and Public Service, individual bargaining for salary increases is not allowed.

This appointment will be made at Assistant Lecturer/Lecturer grade.

With effect from 1st June 2024 the annual salary scale for Assistant Lecturer is:

New Entrant:

€51,537; €54,747; €57,028; €60,674; €64,424; €70,634; €78,697; €82,108; €85,507; €88,924; €92,318 (11 points)

Non New Entrant:

€57,028; €60,675; €64,424; €70,634; €78,697; €82,197; €85,730; €89,281; €92,808 (9 points)

With effect from 1st June 2024 the annual salary scale for Lecturer is:

€61,453; €72,371; €76,243; €78,908; €82,802; €86,738; €90,655; €94,572; €98,488 (9 points)

Increments are awarded in line with national pay agreements.

Salary will be paid on a monthly basis on the 25th of each month, or the previous Friday if 25th falls on a weekend, using the Paypath facility. Payment of salaries and wages are subject to statutory deductions, i.e. Income Tax (PAYE), Superannuation Contributions, Pay Related Social Insurance (PRSI) and Universal Social Charge (USC)

Superannuation

New entrants to the public service will be required to participate in the Single Public Service Pension Scheme and pay Superannuation contributions at the appropriate rates in accordance with the provisions of the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act, 2012. Details of this scheme can be obtained from the College's website.

All other eligible appointees are automatically included in the Colleges' of Education Pension Scheme on taking up appointment. In compliance with the Colleges of Education Pension Scheme, deductions amounting to 6.5% are made from salary. Details of the regulations concerning the Colleges' of Education Pension Scheme may be obtained from the College's Human Resources Office.

The appointee will be required to pay Additional Superannuation Contribution (ASC) under the provisions of the Public Service and Pensions Act 2017.

Appointees who commenced employment in the public service between 1st April 2004 and 31st December 2012 and have not had a break in employment of greater than 6 months will have no mandatory retirement age. All other appointees will have a mandatory retirement age of 70.

If an appointee has previously been employed in the Civil or Public Service and that appointee is entitled to or in receipt of a pension from the Civil or Public Service or where a Civil/Public Service pension comes into payment during the appointee's re-employment that pension will be subject to abatement in accordance with Section 52 of the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and other Provisions) Act 2012.

Please note: In applying for this position you are acknowledging that you understand that the abatement provisions, where relevant, will apply. It is not envisaged that the employing Department/Office/Body will support an application for an abatement waiver in respect of appointments to this position.

Annual Leave

In addition to Public Holidays, a minimum of 20 working days will be allowed per annum. Annual leave should be taken when students are off campus and the taking of leave must have the prior approval of the relevant Line Manager. Public Holidays are granted in accordance with the provisions of the Organisation of Working Time Act, 1997.

Sick Leave

Employees who have a minimum 3 months continuous employment with the College may be granted sick pay subject to the terms of the Public Service Sick Leave Scheme. Sick pay is contingent on full cooperation and compliance with the Colleges absence management procedures.

Termination of Employment

At least three calendar months written notice is required to resign this post.

On the termination of employment but before departing from the College, staff members are required to return to the College all books, reports, memoranda, correspondence, papers, records, reports, files including data held on electronic files, computer disks, electronically recorded discs, and any other documentation, and all other property, including office keys, belonging to the College or relating to its business or affairs which are in the possession of a staff member or under his/her control when the employment is terminated.

Confidentiality

In the course of working in Mary Immaculate College, the person appointed may have access to or hear information concerning staff and/or students and/or the functioning and the business of the College. Such information acquired in the course of employment with the College, including any aspect of the College's responsibilities or operations, is considered to be confidential information. On no account must information concerning students, staff or other College business be divulged or discussed except in the performance of normal duties and, unless authorised to do so, this information shall not be communicated to a third party. In addition, records must never be left in a manner that unauthorised persons can obtain access to them and must be kept in safe custody when no longer required.

Health & Safety

Mary Immaculate College attaches the highest regard to the safety, health and welfare of its employees. It is the duty of each employee to take reasonable care to protect the health and safety of themselves and of other people in the workplace. Each employee must comply with all health and safety policies and procedures in operation in Mary Immaculate College and familiarise him/herself with the Safety Statement.

Employees are obliged to wear any PPE (Personal Protective Equipment) that they may be provided with and no person shall intentionally or recklessly interfere with or misuse any appliance, protective clothing or other equipment provided in the workplace for health and safety purposes. Employees are statutorily/legally obliged to ensure that any accidents/incidents which may occur are reported promptly to the Health and Safety Officer on the MIC Accident/Incident Report Form.

College Policies, Rules and Regulations

The College is a Public Sector employer and is bound by National Agreements. It is also bound by regulations, circulars and directives issued on behalf of Government by the Department of Finance, the Department of Education, the Department of Further and Higher Education, Research, Innovation and Science and the Higher Education Authority.

Employees are at all times subject to the provisions of the Code of Conduct for Staff, College policies, rules and regulations. These policies include but are not confined to Disciplinary & Grievance Policies, Dignity at Work, Examination Rules & Regulations, Policy on Responsible Computing and Use of Information Technology Facilities. All employees are required to familiarise themselves with the contents of Policies and Procedures, on the College's Staff Portal.

5. APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCESS

Method of Selection for Recommendation

Shortlisting

An expert group will convene to conduct shortlisting of applicants, measured against pre-determined criteria.

The criteria that will be used to shortlist candidates for this appointment are:

- a) A post-graduate qualification at doctoral level in Education or Geography or in a cognate discipline;
- b) A primary or post-primary teaching qualification recognised by, or eligible for recognition by the Teaching Council;
- c) A minimum of three years' relevant experience, at least two year of which are in teaching at primary, post-primary or third level;
- d) Specialist expertise and research in Social and Environmental Education (Geography) and related areas areas such as Outdoor Learning, Education for Sustainability and Global Citizenship and GIS (Geographical Information Systems).
- e) Knowledge of contemporary developments in the field of Education and Social and Environmental Education, including recent curricular and policy developments relevant to the area in Ireland;

Normally the number of applications received for a position exceeds that required to fill the position. While a candidate may meet the eligibility requirements of the competition, if the numbers applying for the position are such that it would not be practical to interview everyone, the College may decide that a limited number will be called to interview. This is not to suggest that other candidates are necessarily unsuitable to undertake the job, rather that there are some candidates, based on their application, appear to be better qualified and/or have more relevant experience. It is incumbent, therefore upon the applicant, to ensure that all relevant information is included in their application and that they clearly identify how they meet the specified candidate criteria.

Interview

A recommendation for appointment will be made by an Interview Board. The appointment will be based on this recommendation, except where considerations of health or an unsuitable record in previous employment warrants a departure. A panel will be formed from which appointments to the position of Assistant Professor (Assistant Lecturer/Lecturer) in Social and Environmental Education (Geography) may be filled during the life of the panel (12 months).

Pre-Employment Health Screening

For the purpose of satisfying requirements as to health, successful candidates, before being appointed, will be required to undergo pre-employment health screening.

Garda Vetting

Successful applicants may be required to participate in Garda vetting. Specific instruction on this process will be given at the appropriate time. Applicants who do not comply with the College's requirements in this regard will be excluded from consideration for appointment. Applicants who have resided outside Ireland for a cumulative period of 36 months or more over the age of 18 years must furnish a Foreign Police Clearance (FPC) from the country or countries of residence. Please note; any costs incurred in this process will be borne by the applicant.

Applicants Outside European Economic Area (EEA)

Mary Immaculate College welcomes applications from candidates outside the EEA, however such applicants should familiarise themselves with relevant Government policy before making an application. Further information from the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Employment is available here: Economic migration policy - DETE \(enterprise.gov.ie\)

Making of Applications

Applications must be submitted on an official application form in typed format. Handwritten or incomplete applications will not be accepted. Application forms for this post may be downloaded from the Mary Immaculate College website. www.mic.ul.ie/about-mic/vacancies. Applications must be submitted by e-mail to recruitment@mic.ul.ie with the subject title Assistant Professor in Social and Environmental Education (Geography) no later than:

2pm on Tuesday, 2nd July 2024

Late applications cannot be accepted.

Applications will be acknowledged within 2 working days of submission. Please be sure to check Spam and Junk folders as it may be redirected here by your account preferences. If you do not receive an acknowledgement within 2 working days of submitting your application please contact the HR Office by emailing hr@mic.ul.ie.

The College will not be responsible for any expenses, including travelling expenses, which candidates may incur in connection with their candidature.

Canvassing will disqualify. Any attempt by a candidate either personally or through any other person, on their behalf, to canvass or otherwise influence the outcome of the selection/interview process in his/her favour will lead to disqualification from the competition. Any representations made on behalf of a candidate, without their knowledge will be ignored.

Mary Immaculate College is an equal opportunities employer. Mary Immaculate College holds an Athena SWAN Bronze Institution award in recognition of our commitment to advancing equality and opportunity for all in higher education.

June 2024